MONEY MARKET FUND

Investment Objective

The fund aims to create a low-risk cash equivalent instrument providing consistent interest income while preserving capital and provide investors with a return in excess of what they would earn on related money market instruments.

Investment Approach

The Fund invests in a collation of fixed income instruments including treasury bills, corporate debt, term and call deposits with banks, commercial paper, cash and cash equivalents and other money market instruments in Uganda and offshore markets. The manager uses an active top-down investment approach to assess the macroeconomic environment and allocate the portfolio in such a way that it provides the best possible yield. The target overall duration for the fund is 6 months.

The Fund is conservative and carries a low risk profile.

Historical Fund Performance

	Dec-25	YTD	2024	2023	2022
Return (%)	10.24	10.62	9.7	9.0	9.4
Benchmark (%)	8.66	8.41	7.6	7.6	8.0

Return shown in the table is an annualized yield with the 91 Day bill shown on a net of taxes basis and as a benchmark and comparative return.

Recommended Investment Term : 3 months or more.

Money Market Fund Risk-Reward Profile

- Issuers may not be able to repay their debts; the value of your investment will decrease if this happens. This risk is magnified where the fund invests in a high-risk debtor.
- The fund invests in instruments under volatile market environments and thus interest rates could vary on a regular basis.
- The fund is more suited to investors with a short to medium term horizon; however, the investor can withdraw their funds within 48 hours from notice.
- Under circumstances where the Fund chooses to trade treasury bills, commercial paper and other related instruments, the number of buyers or sellers of those securities could be limited which would affect the fund's ability to buy or sell those securities.
- Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. Results may increase or decrease as a result of increases or decreases in interest rates and other considerations.
- Currency fluctuations could affect the value of the fund in arrears where the Fund invests in offshore securities and where the investor considers their investment from the perspective of a foreign currency.
- The value of the investments and the income from them will all vary and there can be no assurance that the Fund will achieve its investment objectives.

Macro-economic Environment and Market Commentary

Headline inflation held steady at 3.1% in December, from a similar number recorded in November, bringing the average annual inflation for 2025 to 3.6%. Core inflation similarly moderated to 3.1% from the 3.2% recorded in November.

The Uganda shilling registered gains against the USD dollar of 0.14% in December. This was a marginal recovery from a depreciation of 4.26% against the USD in November. The exchange rate at end of month was UGX 3,619.7.

Ugandan private sector conditions remained firmly in growth territory in December, as the Stanbic Bank Uganda PMI rose to 54.0 from 53.8 in November, marking an eleventh consecutive monthly improvement in business conditions.

Short term yields were broadly stable in December, with an average move of 0.1 basis points as the 3-month tenor rose 3.7 basis points to 10.83% while the 6 month and 1-year tenors eased marginally. Medium term bonds saw modest gains, averaging a 1.0 basis point increase, whereas the most notable adjustment was at the long end, where yields fell an average of 7.2 basis points as the 10-year maturity declined 22 basis points from 16.95% to 16.73% while the 15-year and 20-year tenors remained close to 17.60% and 17.70% respectively.

The Central Bank Rate remained unchanged at 9.75%.

Outlook: Uganda's macro outlook remains supportive, combining contained inflation, a firmer currency and sustained private sector momentum into year end. Against this setting, monetary policy is expected to remain accommodative.
